

A.

Monitoring panel gives staff on duty an immediate read-out of the location of the activated switch for quick and accurate response.

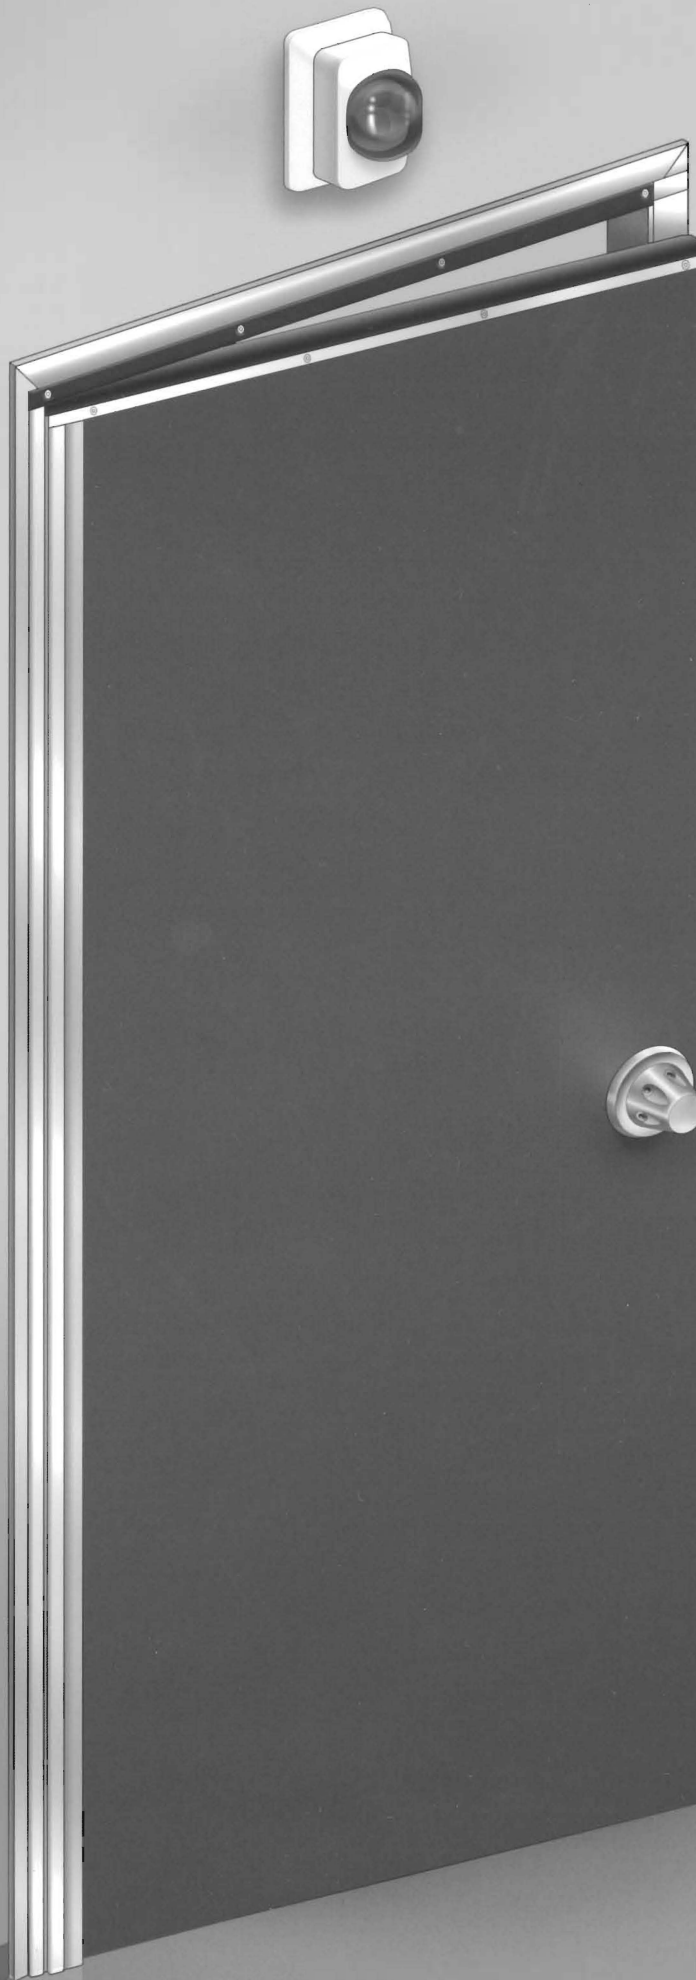

B.

Keyswitch with high security core and Medeco keyway provides a controlled means of deactivating the alarm.

C.

Rubber encased alarm device trips immediate audible and visual alarm when pressure is detected or tampering is suspected.

D.

Header device attached to the top of the frame eliminates gaps and ensures pressure on the alarm device in the case of any infraction.

E.

Continuous hinge mechanism eliminates gaps and doubles as a wiring chase for a clean look and increased tamper resistance.

F.

Strobe light gives quick visual location. Color can be customized to be distinguished from other alarms in your facility.